Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

The work of improving the city parks and reservations will be resumed next Monday, by order of Col. Rockwell.

James Price was acquitted of the charge of assaulting his wife, Caroline Price, in the criminal court yesterday.

John F. Lane, the postmaster at Garfield, near Uniontown, has resigned, and W. H. Murray has been appointed in his place.

A petition, signed by several hundred business men, asking for the passage of the license bill as framed by the commissioners, was presented by Mr. Frank Hume to the commissioners yesterday.

Mr. Ovington E. Weller, of Maryland, the first appointment in the postoffice department under the civil service rules, was yesterday reappointed, having served the probationary period of six months with entire satisfaction.

The Innocents Abroad (yacht club) gave an enjoyable sociable at the Columbia boat house on Thursday evening. A binocular glass was presented to Capt. S. C. Mansell, who commands the schooner in which the club made its last cruise.

Green Durbin was tried in the criminal court yesterday for the larceny of a gold watch from W. E. Dougherty. He was pronounced guilty and sentenced to three years in the Albany penitentiary. Durbin is the son of the late Bishop Durbin, of Kentucky.

Ellen Chase, with several aliases, was on trial in the police court yesterday for stealing a shirt from George Melting, 1239 Seventh street, and a pair of trousers from M. Jesowitz, 1240 Seventh street. Ellen is the most adroit shoplifter in the city, and was held for the grand jury in $300 bail.

Thursday night a colored boy, belonging to the schooner Buckeye, Glance, Capt. Price, fell overboard when off Smith's Point, and was lowered into the water. The schooner M. J. Stevenson, in that neighborhood at the time, lowered a yawl boat at once to hunt him, but after a reasonable search the attempt was abandoned, the boy, it is supposed, being drowned.

A memorial, signed by 200 leading citizens, has been sent to the commissioners, giving the character of their business and locations, and expressing their approbation of the license bill as submitted to congress by the district commissioners, with the request that it be presented to the congressional committee on the District of Columbia, with a request that said license bill be enacted into law.

Prof. J. W. Powell, the chief of the geological survey in his monthly report to the secretary of the interior, states that "the work upon the map of the District of Columbia has consisted of the compiling and transferring, by Messrs. Bodfish and Bassett, of the material furnished by the coast and geodetic survey in the form of original unpublished sheets upon a scale of 1:15,000, with contours twenty feet apart vertically, and covering the greater part of the area required for the immediate use of the geologist."

The reason why Solomon said that there was nothing new under the sun was that he could not buy a good remedy to cure his children's cold. Dr. Bull's cough syrup had not been compounded then. It has long since proved itself to be the greatest benefactor of the nineteenth century.
